Russia Moves Vast Army On Cracow; Germany Menaces Warsaw

PETROGRAD STRATEGISTS BELIEVE GERMANY'S DRIVE AT WARSAW IS ONLY FEINT

THINK VIGOROUS OFFENSIVE OPERATIONS PART OF PLAN TO DIVERT SLAV ATTACK ON CRACOW—HUGE ARMY OF 1,600,000 RUSSIANS ADVANCING PRACTICALLY UNOPPOSED IN AUSTRIA, SAYS MEMBER OF GENERAL STAFF—OFFICIAL REPORTS FROM FRANCE AND BELGIUM SHOW LITTLE SIGN OF BREAKING DEADLOCK AT AISNE, NIEUPORT AND DIXEMUDE

[Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless]
THE HAGUE, Netherlands, Nov. 19.—A Russian staff officer, explaining the latest German successes in the advance on Warsaw, an advance that threatens the Polish metropolis, says it is due to the shattering of some Russian cavalry forces but maintains the result is not a defeat for the Russian army. He explains that the Russian army in Poland maintains three times as much cavalry as does Germany. This cavalry was sent out in advance of the main forces to harry the retiring German army going toward the River Warthe. When the German retreat suddenly ceased, the swarming Russian cavalry was dashed in pieces like migrating birds flying headlong against a rock.

Meanwhile the main body of Russians numbering 1,600,000 men, is advancing steadily and practically unopposed on Cracow.

The Russians do not intend to cross the Carpathians, it is now stated. They will follow the river Odra for the main advance upon Germany.

Back-And-Forth Fighting Along Line in Belgium And France, Says Paris

PARIS, France, Nov. 19.—Official.—"Renewed German artillery activity took place yesterday along the line between the seacoast and Lys, but no infantry attacks were made."

"At Trarivange, which we captured recently, the Germans on Tuesday made an attempt at storming the town and penetrating to the center of the town. Then the Algerians with the Allies launched a fierce counter attack which resulted in our regaining the lost ground. We inflicted very heavy losses on the enemy."

Flanders Fighting Now in Flat Boats

BRUGES, Belgium, Nov. 19.—The fighting between Dixemude and Nieuport is now frequently carried on in flat-bottomed boats, great flotillas of these being used to carry the hostile soldiers from their camps on the higher ground. The boat-fighting thus is giving the contest in this part of Flanders the aspect of the classical siege of Leyden in the sixteenth century.

Tennessee Episode is Still Unexplained

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 19.—The firing of Smyrna forts upon the U. S. S. Tennessee remains unexplained. Nothing further has come from the commander of the vessel regarding the report that the firing was a friendly act, to warn the Americans that Smyrna was mined or closed to navigation.

KINDERGARTEN ASSOCIATION BELIEVES THAT GOVERNMENT SHOULD GIVE AID TO WORK

That the city and county government should aid in the maintenance of Honolulu's free kindergarten and playgrounds, is the gist of a report presented at a conference of local charitable workers in the Library of Hawaii yesterday afternoon, which outlines the present needs of the Free Kindergarten and Children's Aid Association.

The report in full is as follows:—The Free Kindergarten and Children's Aid Association would ask for $10 a month toward the support of each child sent to the Castle Home from the juvenile court, with the understanding that a permanent and

Former Boer Leader Swears Fealty to Cause of Britain

JUDGE ASHFORD TO PROTECT THE ENLISTED MAN

Sounds Death-Knell to Hoodlums In Passing Severe Sentence on Kealoa

Circuit Judge Ashford today "read the riot act" to hoodlumism in Honolulu and gave assurance to the enlisted men on Oahu of his protection from such lawless gangs, insofar as such cases may come under his jurisdiction. In pronouncing the maximum sentence of one year's imprisonment on George Kealoa, a young man convicted of joining with half a dozen others in an assault on Patrick McDonagh, a soldier stationed at Fort Shafter, Judge Ashford made the statement which is quoted below.

The evidence showed that McDonagh while proceeding toward Fort Shafter on King street near Dowsett lane was set upon by fully half a dozen young Hawaiians, who without provocation struck him down twice and kicked him so badly while he was down that his ribs were fractured and he was under the army physician's care for several weeks. The affair occurred the evening of October 17, and was so uncalculated and brutal

WAR RELIEF FUND COLLECTED HERE ALMOST $50,000

Committee Decides to Suspend Operations for Present But to Retain Organization

THANKS EXTENDED TO ALL WHO LENT AID

Report Tells of Accomplishments of Workers in Behalf of European Sufferers

Sufficient funds have been raised in Hawaii for war relief work, according to the findings of the committee in charge which held a meeting this morning. The present organization will be retained, according to the decision of the committee, and work resumed early next year provided there is still need for funds.

Including money received this morning the activities of the committee have resulted in the collection of almost $50,000—to be exact, $49,441.40. A major portion of this money has been forwarded to Belgium, where it was believed it was the most needed and would accomplish the best results. Any contributors who have not yet sent in their funds may do so at any time, the committee, while ceasing in its efforts to secure additional money, being ready to accept any that may come in. Further donations of clothing, etc., etc., are not desired at present.

The following communication was addressed to the Star-Bulletin by the committee this morning:

Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin.
Sir:—A meeting of the war relief committee of Hawaii was held this morning to consider results obtained up to the present time and decide as to what further steps had better be taken in the immediate future. After some discussion it was decided, first, that for the present an active propaganda cease, but that the committee retain its organization and resume operations some time next year, probably early in the year, depending on the needs of sufferers from the war as such needs appear at that time; and that for the present donations of clothing, etc., be suspended, as it involves the presence of persons to receive clothing, to attend to fumigating and packing the same, which is a considerable expense, and which expense the committee does not feel able to meet.

PETROGRAD, Russia, Nov. 19.—Official.—A division of the Russian Black Sea fleet, returning to Sebastopol yesterday, sighted the Turco-German cruisers Goeben and Breslau. The Russians opened fire at a range of five miles. The first salvo from the 12-inch guns of Admiral Evstafy's flagship caused a series of explosions and flames upon the Goeben, amidstships. The engagement lasted only 14 minutes. The Goeben then swiftly disappeared in the fog. The Breslau took no part in the fight.

The Goeben concentrated her fire exclusively on the flagship.

The Russians lost one lieutenant and 19 sailors killed and five wounded. The damage to the Russian ship was negligible.

Troops lined the streets as the impressive cortege passed through, and uncounted thousands of civilians stood bareheaded and silent under a deluge of rain and sleet, through the dark, foggy day.

The exercises were simple and brief. Many of the nation's foremost military and naval men who are retired or hold posts here attended the ceremonies.
